

COMMODITY SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PROGRAM (CSFP)

Senior Food Boxes

The Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) works to improve your health, as a senior at least 60 years of age, by supplementing your diet with nutritious USDA foods.

CSFP food boxes are distributed monthly, by local agencies, and contain 9-10 staple food items such as cheese, rice, milk, canned fruits, canned vegetables and peanut butter. There is no cost to you!

If you are eligible to receive CSFP, you are automatically eligible to receive The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP).

YOU MUST BRING:

1. Proof of your county residency (ex. Drivers' license, rental agreement, utility bill etc.),
2. Proof of your age (60 or older), and

You must have a combined gross income which does not exceed the maximum income limit for the applicable household size below:

Household Size	Senior (Maximum Monthly Gross Household Income)	Senior (Maximum Annual Gross Household Income)
